PRIME TIME CODE OF CONDUCT

Prime Time is a charitable not-for-profit organization dedicated to providing a restful wilderness camping experience to children with a severe/terminal illness or disability and their families. In an effort to maintain the high standard of conduct expected and deserved by the special-needs families whom we serve, this Code of Conduct has been adopted and is applicable to all volunteers and paid staff.

No volunteer or paid staff member shall: (please initial each item)

- ___ Utilize any affiliation with Prime Time to promote partisan politics, religious matters, or issues opposed to the official position of Prime Time, Inc.
- ___ Disclose any confidential Prime Time information to any person.
- ___ Make derogatory statements regarding race, physical condition, or personal traits to anyone.
- ___ Operate or act in any manner that conflicts with the best interests of Prime Time, Inc., or its users.
- ___ Use alcohol or any other substance while at Camp Prime Time that could impact job performance or the safety of people or property.
- ___ Interact with any campers or staff if you have any medical or criminal background that may cause, or appear to cause, harm to anyone.
- ___ Authorize the use of the name, logo, services, or property of Prime Time, Inc for the benefit of other individuals or organizations not associated with Prime Time, Inc.

* * * * *

I certify that I have read and understand the Code of Conduct of Prime Time, Inc., and agree to comply with it.

I understand that a background check will be performed. If I have a criminal record I will disclose it to the Executive Director or the Prime Time Board President so that it can be discussed. This will not necessarily preclude me from serving as a volunteer.
